

23 APR 1961

The Honorable Stewart L. Udall
The Secretary of the Interior
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Udall:

Undersecretary James Carr, in conversation with Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, our Inspector General, suggested that perhaps you would be interested in meeting some of our senior officials in view of the rather extensive international interest of the Department of the Interior. I would be delighted to have you and Undersecretary Carr, and any other of your associates whom you would like to bring with you, come for lunch with us to discuss areas of mutual interest. Perhaps you could have your office advise mine of a convenient date.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

Undersecretary of Interior Carr expressed an interest in language training and as a gesture of good will I took him to see our language laboratory at Arlington Towers. He is anxious to learn Spanish as he believes that the Department of Interior can do a lot in working with the Latin Americans. I have told him we can make arrangements to assist him in this regard.

Mr. Carr suggested that Secretary Udall might like to come over and discuss mutual problems with you, thus the attached letter.

MEMORANDUM FOR: ~~Mr. Dulles~~

You did sign a letter to Secretary Udall on 23 April (copy attached) inviting him and any of his associates to lunch and for a briefing and discussion in areas of mutual interest. No reply has been received.

Since Kirk knows Undersecretary of the Interior Carr well, he plans to call him and find out where our invitation stands.
